ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As I finished this thesis, I thank God, Jesus Christ, who has always been with me through the difficult processes in writing the final assignment in completing my study. I could not ignore how God has led me all along and given me strength, health and ability to do this hard job.

I will never forget to mention some names which mean a lot to me; firstly my dear teacher: Dra. Josefa Mardijono, who is so patient and encouraging during the writing process. How thankful I am to her that no word is great enough to describe my feeling towards her.

Here I will also mention my dear mother and my only brother: Andreas, who helped me spiritually. Also my dear lovely friend: Debby, my nice students: Susan and Yunita, who always pushed me through. I could not leave my dear nice friend Widyawati, who helped me so much in typing this writing.

Finally, I just could say that all those people I mentioned above mean too much for me. Thank you very much. Without your supports, I believe, this thesis will never exist!
