Interior Design for Yindra Cafe Salon with a Wellness Concept in Surabaya

This research is a retail and commercial space design project in the city of Surabaya. The city of Surabaya has a very busy society. The never-ending demands of work require everything to be fast and instant. In addition, busy schedules accompanied by polluted urban environments have a negative impact on human physical and emotional health. The aim of this research is to combine the interior of a café and salon by creating an atmosphere that considers physical and emotional balance. The method used in this design is Design Thinking which consists of Understanding, Observe, Point of View, Ideate, Prototype, Test, Story Telling, Pilot, and Business Mode. The result of this research is a combination of cafe and salon with the application of the wellness concept. By building a healthy cafe and salon environment using the principles of natural balance creates physical and emotional balance. Creating a healthy room atmosphere requires arranging various interior elements, such as lighting, materials and layout, which are also part of the wellness concept. It is hoped that this research can meet the needs of the people of Surabaya who are used to fast-paced activities so they don't need to move places and can enjoy a relaxed atmosphere.
